

Usamah Rodgers serves as the assistant superintendent for strategic initiatives in the Dallas Independent School District. In this role she leads Dallas ISD's Post-Secondary, Pathways in Technology (P-TECH) and Early College Programs. Prior to assuming her current position, Rodgers served as the executive director of P-TECH and Early College programs where she was responsible for assisting with the design and implementation of systems to support campuses as Dallas ISD launched 18 P-TECH programs. Rodgers received a Bachelor of Science degree in elementary education from Missouri State University, a Master of Education degree in education administration from the University of Texas at Austin and is currently pursuing a doctorate in education administration from the University of Texas at Austin.

Usamah Rodgers serves as the Dallas ISD Assistant Superintendent for Strategic Initiatives. In this role she leads Dallas ISD Post-Secondary, P-TECH and Early College Programs. Prior to assuming her current position, Ms. Rodgers served as the Executive Director of P-TECH and Early College programs where she was responsible for assisting with the design and implementation of systems to support campuses as Dallas ISD launched 18 Pathways in Technology Early College High School (P-TECH) programs. Usamah has served as a campus administrator at all levels and as a School Leader Executive Director supervising twelve campuses in Dallas ISD. Ms. Rodgers received a Bachelor's of Science degree in elementary education from Missouri State University, a Master of Education degree in education administration from the University of Texas at Austin and is currently pursuing a doctorate in education administration from the University of Texas at Austin.

Usamah Rodgers

Assistant Superintendent
Strategic Initiatives
Dallas Independent School District
972-925-5488 (o)
9400 N. Central Expressway
Dallas, TX 75231
Umuhammad-rodgers@dallasisd.org